THE TOWN DOCTOR

(The Doctor of Towns)

SAYS

TO THE MERCHANTS OF BETHEL

A few years ago, the people of Bethel and surrounding territory HAD to buy from you, or go without. As you know, that is not now the case. Good roads and motor cars, magazines, better than papers and radios, plus free mail delivery, has changed all that.

Today people can get anything they need—want, from when and where they please—and only can, but do. They can get it from you, but whether they do or not depends on you.

In practically every community we have "statewide advertising is entering our people." "Competition of companies is taking our business." Maybe this is true, but what are you doing to counteract it?

As an excuse and alibi for lack of business, thousands of merchants say, "People don't buy like they used to." That is absolutely true—people don't buy as they used to.

But how about you—do you still sell "like you used to"? Why should people stick to the old, hand-drawn, weekly "trader," when shopping and buying are now made such a pleasure? Why go to a funeral when a festival is on?

If other a sea invite the people and give them a reason why they should buy from them, of course your customers are going to accept the invitation at least once. Then, if those extending the invitation are and serve as today's "trader" like to be sold and served, they will continue to accept the repeated invitation. You would do it yourself under similar circumstances.

Still, the average man and woman, by the capacity of the people in Bethel, would rather do business with you, and they will do business with you if you will profit by the experience of others. That is not all talk, but a fact based on human nature, backed up by the actual proof obtained from the people themselves in every section of the country. But, you must have a "reason why" and that reason must be kept before the people all of the time.

When you say, "Why should I buy from you?" you are saying, "Why should I buy from you?" and that is the question that every man and woman asks. The answer to that question is the reason why they should buy from you. That is not all talk, but a fact based on human nature, backed up by the actual proof obtained from the people themselves in every section of the country. But, you must have a "reason why" and that reason must be kept before the people all of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lord of South Paris took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Jenkins Sunday. After dinner they took Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins to a wonderful automobile trip through Waterford, Stoneham, Lovell and Fryeburg to "Jacky Cap" about which there are so many Indian legends. Leaving their car they climbed to the top of this historic boulder, from which one gets the most magnificent view of the Sagadahoc Valley and the wonderful mountain ranges in the distance. No hand lower ever coming could paint the beauty of the autumn foliage, it was grand beyond compare. Looking down on the road far below the automobiles reminded one of large swiftly creeping beetles.

The trip home was through Bridgton, South Waterford and Waterford Flat.

NORTH PARIS

The annual supper, roll call and get-together of the United Parish Church was held at Community Hall Wednesday evening, Sept. 25th, with a large attendance. Invitations were sent out by Mrs. A. D. Littlehale to all the members, so those unable to come could send letters to be read. A fine supper was served at 6:30 P. M. by Mrs. Alfred Andrews, Mrs. W. H. Littlehale and Mrs. John Ross, assisted by others. The pastor, Rev. George C. Smith, presided over the evening's program which consisted of the singing of familiar hymns, a solo and two selections by the choir of the South Paris Baptist church, the roll call and address by Rev. H. H. Bishop of Yarmouth. The roll call proved an inspirational time, when many responses were given and letters read from members unable to be present. Rev. H. H. Bishop gave a splendid address which was enjoyed by those present.

Last Sunday afternoon at the regular church service the pastor, Rev. George C. Smith, baptised two children: Joyce, E. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cole, and Charles Vernon Ridley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ridley. They were both presented by their mothers.

D. B. Graves and Mr. Jeffries of Boston were recent visitors at Charles Child's.

Ethelyn Gibbs spent the week end with Shirley Horrick at West Paris.

S. I. Wheeler is working for Mr. Wilson in the pine woods near South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Coffin, Clarence Coffin and Mrs. Martha Martin visited relatives and friends at Milan and Gorham Sunday.

Harry Brown and Miss Rose Soisberg of Worcester, Mass., are spending their vacation in town. Mr. Brown is boarding with Mrs. Charles Childs and Mrs. Soisberg with Mrs. Arthur Abbott.

Fire destroyed the buildings of August Kumpulainen in Tuel Town Monday morning starting in the shed or barn from unknown origin. All of the stock, most of the poultry, farming tools and most of the household goods were saved. The family at present are living in a ten house until their appliances are picked and plans are made for the future. Mrs. Kumpulainen is in very poor health, also his oldest boy who was operated on recently and has to return to the hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bancey, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bessey of Buckfield and Miss Savage of Bangor were callers at Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Abbott's Sunday.

Harold Gerlach spent the week end at South Portland, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Richardson.

Supt. of Schools R. E. Robinson of South Paris was visiting schools here Tuesday.

DeForest Perkins of Portland was in town Tuesday looking after the repairs on his store.

Mrs. Elmer Dunham is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Parker at Bethel.

Mrs. Doreen McPherson of Newry visited her aunt, Mrs. Martha Martin, Wednesday.

Mrs. Jan. H. H. Budge, wife of superintendent of School, has been in town.

Mrs. A. W. Jullien is in town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jullien were in town Tuesday of this week.

NEWRY

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hakala were in South Paris last Saturday to take her mother, who has been staying with her this summer, home.

Mrs. Charles Robertson was all the first of the week but is better at this writing.

Nearly everybody in town attended the Grange Fair at Newry Corner last Saturday.

They have the new bridge so people are crossing it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Powers and Rexford Powers were in North Newry last Sunday making calls.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bryant and family of Flagstaff and Mrs. Olive Bennett of Bethel called to see W. N. Powers and family and D. O. Smith last Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Chapman will entertain the Bear River Circle at her camp Saturday night.

Master Linwood Mason has been visiting his mother in Portland the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Coolidge and children Edgar and Barbara spent Sunday with his brother, Floyd Coolidge and family.

Mrs. Frank Gibson moved to Bethel village Tuesday.

Fred McInnis of Framingham, Mass. and Mrs. McNeir of Leeds called Saturday at H. A. Skillings' and attended Newry Fair.

Quite a number from here attended Newry Fair.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

In connection with the State Sunday School Convention being held in Portland October 8, 9, and 10 under the auspices of the Maine Council of Religious Education, a luncheon will be given on Thursday, October 10, for the women attending the Convention. Representatives of the women's Bible classes throughout the State will be present and the Portland women will act as hostesses in extending the courtesy of the city to these visitors. Dr. Henry H. Meyer of Boston University School of Religious Education will address the women. Dean Meyer has occupied one of the highest positions in the Methodist denomination at Editor-in-Chief of Methodist Publications, and is a man of unusual ability.

Following the luncheon which will be served in the Friend's Church, Portland, a conference on Religion in the Home will be conducted. Mrs. Rodney W. Roundy of Portland will preside and the speakers include many prominent in the work throughout the State. Rev. Hilda Ives will give an address on "Youth and Home Making." Mrs. Charles Peters will speak on "How to Teach Religion in the Home." Rev. Olin B. Tracy will discuss "What the Church Can Do for the Home," and Rev. Arthur Wilson will speak on "The Essentials of a Christian Home."

Thursday afternoon, October 10, is also the day on which the Youth Conference will be held, when an opportunity will be extended to the young people of Portland and vicinity to attend special discussion and forum periods planned especially for young people. Leaders will be Rev. Harold F. Metzner, Waterville; Rev. James F. Laughton, St. Albans; and Mr. Roy A. Burkhardt of Chicago. At the same time a conference for Leaders of Youth will be conducted with Rev. Ray Gibbons, Westbrook; Miss Susan M. Andrews, Portland; Prof. Herbert L. Newman of Waterville and others in the program.

The three days of the Convention, October 8, 9 and 10, will be completely filled with opportunities for instruction, inspiration and fellowship, provided by the general sessions, conferences and forum periods, the suppers and luncheons which have been arranged and in other ways. The Portland people are working extremely hard to secure places of entertainment, to arrange attractive meals, to provide adequate hospitality features and in every way to make the 69th Annual State Sunday School Convention one of the best ever had. The Maine Council of Religious Education, 502 Press Herald Building, Portland, is in charge of arrangements and Rev. Charles Peters, the General Secretary of the Council, is sparing no pains to perfect every detail of the Convention program.

These Modern Days

with "get-rich-quick" schemes on the one hand, and luxuries of all descriptions on the other, we feel justified in stating this belief:

That the old fashioned virtue of thrift has never been so vitally important as it is today.

Apply Good Old-fashioned Thrift.
